

DATA-DRIVEN DIALOGUE

a GUIDE TO Collaborative inquiry

Dates:

- October 8, 2009 ■ November 3, 2009
- February 2, 2010

Marin County Office of Education
4:15 – 7:15 p.m.

Audience:

Principals, Grade Level Coordinators, Department Chairs and Lead Teachers/Coaches

Facilitators:

Linda Sheppard, Project Manager, BTSA, MCOE
Judy Arrow, Director of Education Services

- These sessions are designed to implement the Collaborative Learning Cycle to create “confident data users.”
- The Collaborative Learning Cycle is based on the work of Bruce Wellman and Laura Lipton.
- Participants will experience the Collaborative Learning Cycle as they examine their own school/district data.
- These experiences will help participants to create their own toolbox to implement collaborative inquiry at their school sites/districts.

Cost: $50-$60/per person (based on enrollment) includes

- Afternoon Snacks
- Book – “Data-Driven Dialogue:
A Facilitator’s Guide to Collaborative Inquiry”

Register online at: <http://signup.marinschools.org/curriculum.asp>